A businessman and the girlfriend of a business associate are implicated in the scam. Plot Kishore (Dharmendra) is a successful businessman who has recently earned a lot of money, and is working for a large multinational company. He is friends with Prashant, who is involved in illegal activities. A few days ago, Kishore's girlfriend, Asha (Sumitra Mukherjee) visited the United States on a business trip. She is the biological daughter of a diplomat, and her dad is much older than her mom. Her mom always favored her younger brother, Sanjay, and left Asha and her dad for him. One day, Kishore finds his girlfriend, Asha, alone, after she suffers a mental breakdown on the flight to New York. Kishore and Asha decide to make a getaway, and return to India with their families. Asha's dad, is very upset, and Kishore's family is nervous, but Kishore assures everyone that nothing bad will happen. Soon, Asha comes to her senses, and realizes that her boyfriend has been lying to her. Kishore's mom gets to know of this, and starts crying. Kishore's mom, and other relatives convince Asha to get married to Kishore. Kishore proposes to Asha, who agrees to marry him. Kishore gives an interview to CNN, in which he defends himself by saying that Asha has no intentions of harming him, and is just a businesswoman, who got emotionally involved in her work. The interview is followed by a press conference by another news channel, and he becomes a target of suspicion. When Asha goes to a psychiatrist, she is diagnosed as suffering from "multiple personality disorder", and is sent to a mental institution. Meanwhile, Kishore, and his friend, Prashant, have begun to sell their shares on the stock market, by using the money they had won from the scam, and their companies are made even richer. Asha escapes the mental institution, and visits her father. She finds out that he had only married her mom to try to get closer to the political world. She overhears him talk about the "need to end the reign of NRI's" with Kishore, since NRI's (Non-resident Indians) are rich, and NRI's abuse the system. She also finds out that her mom was involved in a lot 82157476af
